

Overview and Description of the James Qigñak Wells Endowment Scholarship Program

The Maniilaq Association James Qigñak Wells Endowment Scholarship Program (hereinafter referred to as the "Program") is a competitive scholarship available to selected graduate and undergraduate students of junior standing or higher standing who are pursuing degrees at accredited universities/colleges. Applicants must be enrolled in a federally recognized tribe of the Maniilaq service area. The Program provides eligible recipients up to $12,500 in financial assistance per year for tuition and other educational expenses considered non-taxable by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). All funds are paid directly to the university/college for tuition, fees, and related expenses. Once tuition, fees, and related expenses are met, all remaining program funds may be released to the student. This Program is administered by Workforce Development staff. The Program shall in all cases be administered consistent with the requirements of applicable IRS laws and regulations.

APPLICANT APPEAL/ GRIEVANCE PROCESS

Maniilaq Workforce Development has established a uniform appeal and grievance procedure applicable to all participants within our programs. The procedure insures due process and establishes a series of levels, starting with informal resolution at the staff level. The final tribal level of appeal for Maniilaq Workforce Development programs is presented and resolved by the Maniilaq Association Tribal Government Administrator. All appeals and grievances must be in writing and submitted within twenty (20) business days of the action being appealed. Participants will be advised of determination(s) within ten (10) business days of receipt of written complaint(s). An appeal/ grievance may be sought by any participant within our programs who believe that a violation of the policies has occurred or to further research eligibility or payment determination.

The following procedure shall be used as the means of settling such appeal and/ or grievances:

- Step 1. The participant will first make his/her complaint in writing known to his/her case worker, within 20 days of the incident.
- Step 2. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the participant, the participant will immediately put such complaint in writing and submit this for review to the WFD Deputy Director at P.O. Box 256 Kotzebue, AK 99752.
- Step 3. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the participant, the participant will immediately request in writing, that the complaint be reviewed by the Workforce Development Director.
- Step 4. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the participant, the participant will immediately request, in writing a review by the Tribal Government Services Administrator.
